

THE VINITA DAILY CHIEFTAIN

VOL. 5. NO. 64.

VINITA, INDIAN TERRITORY WEDNESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 24, 1902.

PRICE PER WEEK

What the Papers Say.

"Hark, from the tomb a doleful sound." Sam Powell and Mr. Moon managed to raise sufficient howl one day this week to get the Moon bill mentioned in the associated press.—Purosil Register.

It seems that the Democratic senators have a string attached to the omnibus bill that relieves the Indian Territory apprehension of being absorbed. The scheme is not public property. Mr. Moon evidently knew the situation when he said if the omnibus statehood bill is enacted he hoped to successfully run the gauntlet with his territory of Jefferson measure. From this it would seem that separate territoryhood would not be endangered by the present omnibus bill, although the bill as it stands now gives congress the power to attach at any time portions of the five tribes to Oklahoma.—South McAlester Capital.

College Classes for Holidays.

The Wilde-Haisell College closed last Friday for the holidays. The principal, Miss Anna Williams, received a very hearty greeting. A number of visitors were present and all expressed themselves as well pleased. The seminary had a very prosperous session. It is well organized, and the classes are doing good work. The College will reopen on the 1st of January. It is to be hoped that the school will even be fuller after the holidays than before. Prof. Park, on account of his health, will retire from the school work and go back into the wing of the ministry. We regret to lose him from the school and the town. It is a matter of congratulation to the school that Prof. Mooney will take his place in the faculty. Prof. Mooney is a fine teacher, and is thoroughly acquainted with the works of the office. The school will be without a break.

A responsible couple in town wishing the services of a boy to pay his board while a student in the Wilde-Haisell College, will please see or phone me. I receive numbers of applications of this sort, and I feel that to assist them would be a waste of time.

Christmas Party.

Last evening at her home on South Brewer St., Miss Estelle McCleary entertained the pupils of her private school, and their parents, by giving a delightful Christmas party. A beautiful Christmas tree hung with presents for her scholars and the members of their families was the center of attraction for the occasion. Music declaimations and singing in which the girls very creditably acquitted themselves, were the chief features of the evening. Quite a number of friends of the school were also present and partook of the sweets and delicacies which such an occasion affords, and each one went home feeling that he had been well entertained.

On examining it he found it belonged to his son Frank and he had lost it a month ago. The watch was not at all injured.

A Wise Woman.

Manager Butler informs us that he is negotiating with the managers of "A Wise Woman" for one night. He says there is very little chance for such a company having a date open. No matter, let them know we are on earth. We may catch them on their return. You must remember, 'twas wind that made Chicago. Keep blowing your horn.

I have two places open for worth boys or young men to work their way in the Willie Haisell College. Those wishing to go to school here after the holidays, and desiring to pay their board by doing work morning evenings and Saturdays, will see or address me at once. C. L. BROWNING
